ABSTRACT

Extended abstracts can be used to describe work in progress and preliminary results. The abstract should contain a clear statement of the problem being addressed and the contribution expected to be made relative to existing literature. Work in progress can be presented at any stage of development, and authors are encouraged to share preliminary insights and novelties of model structure or methodology that are of interest to other researchers. No discussion of conclusions is needed. The Abstract may contain figures, tables and references. The Abstract must start 12 pts below the Keywords and span the full width of the page in two columns (1 cm between columns). The Abstract should be formatted as 10 pt Times New Roman, fully justified.

1. EQUATIONS

Equations should be numbered consecutively as they appear in the text with Arabic numerals and should be referred to by their numbers only, e.g. (3). Equations must be typed not hand printed. About 5 mm should be left clear above and below each equation.

2. FIGURES AND PHOTOGRAPHS

Figures must be of high quality and may be in colour. Figure numbers and captions appear at the foot of the figures. If necessary, figures and captions may straddle both columns. Figures should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals, in the order in which reference is made to them in the text, e.g. Figure 1, Figure 2, etc.

Photographs can also be used in the abstract.

3. TABLES

Tables must be of high quality and may be in colour. Table numbers and captions appear above the table. If necessary, tables and captions may straddle both columns. Tables should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals, in the order in which reference is made to them in the text, e.g. Table 1, Table 2, etc.

Table Captions. 10 pt Times Roman, centered.

4. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Any particular assistance out of the ordinary may be acknowledged. It is not necessary from conference organisers' point of view to record the permission of the author's organisation to publish the abstract or the information contained therein.

5. REFERENCES

Style

References should include (in the following order): Author Name(s), Initials, (Year), Title of article with first letter uppercase, full Journal name in Italics, Volume (Number), page range. References should conform to the American Psychological Association referencing style:

<https://guides.library.uq.edu.au/referencing/apa6>

Order

The references must be listed in alphabetical order of author's names and increasing dates of publication, with the addition of an 'a' or 'b' to the date, where necessary. In the text, references are cited by referring to the surname of the author, followed by the date of publication in brackets, e.g. "it was shown by Hanke (1970) that ...".

Where more than two authors are involved, the reference in the text should be of the form: "it was shown by Jones et al. (1994)".

6. NOTATION AND UNITS

If the abstract makes extensive use of symbols or other special nomenclature they should be listed and defined under this heading. Otherwise, all symbols are to be defined when first used. All units are to be SI (metric).

7. CRITERIA FOR ACCEPTANCE

7.1. Length

Abstracts must not exceed two (2) A4 pages. This includes all diagrams, figures and references.

7.2. Permission to Publish

Unless informed by the author to the contrary, the APSD conference will assume that an abstract submitted has not been published or offered elsewhere and is not the property of any other person or body.

It is the author's responsibility to obtain any necessary permission from his/her organisation or from any other person or body for the publication of an abstract or any material in it; such permission need not be mentioned in the acknowledgments.

By default, abstracts will be included in the conference proceedings.

8. PRESENTATION OF PAPER AT THE CONFERENCE

8.1. Electronic Presentations

All presenters will have access to Microsoft PowerPoint to assist with their presentations.

9. REGISTRATION

At least one of the authors should be registered for acceptance of the abstract and its inclusion in the Conference Proceedings.

10. ENQUIRIES AND CORRESPONDENCE

All enquiries concerning abstracts should be sent to apsdc-enquiries@business.uq.edu.au
